

Fair Employment Foundation

Fair Employment Foundation is a section 88 charity in Hong Kong. Our mission is to build market solutions to end the forced labour of migrant workers across Asia. Forced labour is a market problem, so we build market solutions to make the market work better for everyone. Some of our initiatives are social businesses that generate revenue while others are pioneering solutions and technologies that help workers and employers alike.

Fair Employment Agency

Fair Employment Agency is a non-profit social business with a big ambition - We aim to reinvent the recruitment of migrant domestic helpers and end forced labour in Hong Kong.

For too long, domestic helper employment agencies have been making money from doing a bad job. Employers are charged for bad customer service, while agencies secretly charge domestic helpers too. This illegal practice leaves domestic helpers in debt bondage and fails employers.

But at Fair we saw another way. We set up Fair Employment Agency in 2014 - a new kind of domestic helper agency that would not charge fees to workers. From a small, start-up idea four years ago, we now employ 20 full-time staff members, placing 100 domestic helpers a month, and have saved 3,000 domestic helpers over US$4.5 million in recruitment debt!
